Mickey Hancock

Business Ethics

Wayne Mickey Hancock retired as vice president and general counsel of The Dow Chemical Company. Earlier in his career he labored as vice president and general counsel of Dow Chemical Europe and managing director of Dow's Italian Region. He previously served in the U.S. Air Force Judge Advocate General Corps in Germany and Utah.

Mickey earned a bachelor's degree in Business Administration from Brigham Young University and a juris doctorate degree from the University of Arizona. He is a member of the state bars of Arizona and Michigan.

His service in The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints is extensive, most recently serving as President of the Bern Switzerland Temple from 2005 to 2008. Prior to serving as Temple President, Elder Wayne M. Hancock served as a member of the Second Quorum of the Seventy, President of the Europe East Area in Moscow, president of the Utah Provo Mission and as a stake president, stake president's counselor, high counselor, bishop, and stake mission president.

Mickey was born in Safford, Arizona, raised in Glendale, California, and married the former Connie Ann Cameron from St. Anthony, Idaho. They have five sons, three daughters, twenty-eight grandchildren, and seven great grandchildren.
